Itinerary

DAY 1: Transfer In - Bogotá Airport

An English-speaking guide will drive you from El Dorado International Airport to your hotel. This private transfer takes about 45 minutes. There will be an afternoon briefing followed by a welcome dinner.

DAY 2: Uncovering Bogotá's Gems

Your adventure begins in Colombia, with a tour of Bogotá. Start in La Candelaria, the city's most beautiful neighbourhood, where colourful street art adorns every corner. Dive into culture at the Botero Museum, featuring works by Colombia's famous painter and sculptor, Fernando Botero, known for his exaggerated figures (closed on Tuesdays). Next, explore the Gold Museum, where pre-Columbian treasures tell the story of the indigenous peoples who once thrived here (closed on Mondays). For those seeking a spectacular finish, an optional ride up to the Monserrate lookout offers incredible panoramic views of the city (optional). Breakfast and lunch included

DAY 3: Salt Mines and Valleys

Today you'll transfer to the car pickup location in Bogotá, then drive to Zipaquirá to visit its famous cathedral built deep in the salt mines. This underground Roman Catholic church still holds mass, amidst tunnels lined with salt crystals. After touring the Zipaquirá Salt Cathedral, drive down to Villa de Leyva. Along the way, you'll stumble upon charming colonial towns, each with its own unique story to tell. The cobblestone streets of Villa de Leyva beckon you to wander through its well-preserved architecture, transporting you back in time. Breakfast and lunch included
Total drive time is approx. 4 hours, 187 km

DAY 4: Secrets of the Lake

Today's drive takes you on a scenic journey through Colombia's Boyacá region. The road from Villa de Leyva to Tunja winds through rolling green hills and lush valleys dotted with traditional farms and charming villages. Picturesque viewpoints along the way capture the region's Andean vistas and rich cultural history. Continue to Laguna de Tota, Colombia's largest natural lake, located close to white sand beaches like Playa Blanca, surrounded by lush hills. Finally, drive to Monguí where you will spend 2 nights. Breakfast included
Total drive time is approx. 5 hours, 190 km

DAY 5: Experiencing Monguí at Your Leisure

On this free day our local guide will take you around the town, visiting Puente de Calicanto, Basilica of Our Lady of Monguí and ball-making factories. Rest of the day to sip Colombian coffee amidst the bustling local scene, explore the secrets of the ancient Puente de Calicanto, delve into the páramo for panoramic vistas and the enchanting frailejón plants, sample a traditional Boyacense feast or peruse the artisanal shops for unique finds. Breakfast included

DAY 6: From Páramo Peaks to Tropical Valleys

Depart the quaint streets of Monguí for the misty páramo, where the rugged beauty of high-altitude plains and unique frailejón plants await. Descend into a shift from mountain chill to tropical warmth, winding through lush valleys, by waterfalls and alongside shimmering rivers. Pass through picturesque villages sharing stories of Colombian rural life. We spend the night in Villeta, known for sugarcane fields and waterfalls. Breakfast included. Total drive time is approx. 5.5 hours, 300 km

DAY 7: Tropical Wilderness Adventure, Río Claro

Today's journey from Villeta to Río Claro Canyon Natural Reserve covers vibrant tropical scenery. Wind through lush green hills as the climate warms towards the Magdalena Valley, encountering charming towns, fertile fields, and Colombia's rural essence at every turn. As you near the Magdalena River, the terrain shifts dramatically, with towering cliffs and dense forests guiding your path. Descend into a lush valley where the river weaves through dense jungle, leading to the dazzling Río Claro. We have two nights here with time to explore emerald waters carving through marble canyons. All meals included. Total drive time is approx. 3 hours, 157 km

DAY 8: Río Claro Canyon Natural Reserve

Day at your leisure. At Río Claro, explore the Cueva de los Guácharos, with its stunning rock formations and underground rivers, or go rafting on the crystal-clear waters surrounded by lush jungle. Hike the reserve's trails for bird watching, spotting toucans, parrots, and the elusive Guácharo bird. For more excitement, zip-line through the forest or take a refreshing swim in the emerald river. In the town of Doradal, admire the Mediterranean-inspired architecture. A peaceful trip to the Río Magdalena offers boat rides, fishing, and beautiful views, making this area a traveller's paradise. All meals included

DAY 9: From Doradal to Guatapé

On today's journey you will be captivated by the ever-changing landscapes. Overlooking Guatapé, is the mighty Peñol Rock, a colossal monolith that offers breathtaking panoramic views of the surrounding area. Hop on a boat ride and let the gentle waves carry you through the pristine waters of Guatapé Lake and when hunger strikes, indulge in a delicious lunch, savouring the flavours of the region. Breakfast included. Total drive time is approx. 3.5 hours, 118 km

DAY 10: Guatapé

A free day in Guatapé to relax and explore in one of Colombia's most colourful towns. In the morning those who would like to take the optional climb of the 740 steps to reach the summit (Piedra del Peñol) will go with our guide. Otherwise, stroll along the malecón (boardwalk) to browse handicrafts, local art, and souvenirs. The vibrant atmosphere and friendly locals make it a pleasant way to unwind. For a bit of adventure, rent a kayak or paddleboard to explore the lake at your own pace. As the day winds down, find a cosy café or bar in the town square to enjoy a drink while watching the sunset over Guatapé's vibrant streets. The town's lively yet laid-back vibe, paired with the surrounding natural beauty, creates a truly memorable experience. Breakfast included

DAY 11: From Guatapé to Santa Elena

The road winds through rolling green hills and dense pine forests, invigorated by the crisp mountain air. The journey passes through farmland with traditional fincas and flower fields, hinting at Santa Elena's floral heritage. Charming villages dot the landscape, offering glimpses of rural life and opportunities to enjoy local treats or sweeping valley views. As you ascend into the mountains, the scenery becomes more dramatic, with misty peaks and lush vegetation. Arriving in Santa Elena, the birthplace of the famous silleteros tradition, you'll be welcomed by vibrant flowers and warm hospitality, capping. Breakfast and lunch included. Total drive time is approx. 2 hours, 70 km

DAY 12: Medellín Wonders

After a 20-minute drive to Arví Park you'll hop on a cable car for a fun ride into Medellín for a full-day tour, visiting the lively Plaza Botero, Parque Berrio, and Santo Domingo. In the afternoon, get a closer look at the transformation of Comuna 13, a neighbourhood that's gone from dangerous to joyful, with colourful street art and bustling energy. Soar above Medellín in the cable cars for breath taking views before heading back to Santa Elena in the late afternoon. Breakfast and lunch included

DAY 13: Entering the Coffee Region Through Salamina

From Santa Elena's flower-filled highlands you'll drive to where the Coffee Region's traditional fincas invite you to learn about the coffee-making process or enjoy a fresh brew. Upon reaching Salamina, one of Colombia's most beautiful and authentic villages, founded in 1852, you'll explore its highlights with a local guide. Visit the main square, La Basílica, the cemetery, and La Última Lágrima (the last tear), a unique bar. The tour includes stops at two traditional houses, where you can enjoy regional snacks and experience the town's beautiful architecture, complete with wooden balustrades, terraces, and vibrant flower-filled spaces. Breakfast, lunch and regional snacks included. Total drive time is approx. 5 hours, 170 km

DAY 14: San Félix and Samaria Valley

Today, a day trip from our base is Salamina to visit the Samaria Valley, about an hour away near San Félix. Here you'll find towering wax palm trees similar to those in the Cocora Valley. The scenic route to the valley includes stops for photos and breathtaking views. You can choose a longer or shorter walk through the valley, guided by your preferences. At the Mirador, enjoy a panoramic view and a local lunch. The Mirador also hosts a conservation project to protect and plant new wax palms. You can plant your own tree for AUD17 per year, with a sign bearing your name, while the project plants five additional trees for each one you sponsor. Breakfast and lunch included. Total drive time is approx. 2 hours (1 hour each way)

DAY 15: Discovering Salento

Start your day with a scenic drive from Samaria to the charming town of Salento where you will spend 2 nights. As you wind through the rolling hills, you'll pass through quaint villages and expansive coffee plantations, offering a glimpse into the heart of Colombia's coffee culture. Upon arriving in Salento, known for its colourful colonial architecture and vibrant atmosphere, take time to explore the town's bustling streets, visit local artisan shops, and enjoy a traditional meal. In the afternoon, you can visit a nearby coffee farm or hike in the stunning Cocora Valley, home to towering wax palms and breath taking views. Breakfast included. Total drive time is approx. 4 hours, 160 km

DAY 16: Coffee Tour in the Cocora Valley

A short drive takes you to a traditional coffee finca to immerse yourself in the rich world of Colombian coffee culture. The tour shows the entire coffee-making process, from planting the seed to tasting a freshly brewed cup. Wander through flourishing coffee fields, inhale the fragrant aroma of ripe coffee cherries, and learn about the meticulous care that goes into every step of cultivation. The passionate growers will share their secrets and stories, making this an enriching experience. Of course, you'll have the chance to indulge in a cup of Colombia's finest coffee. Breakfast and included. Total drive time is approx. 1 hour , 30 mins each way

DAY 17: Back to Bogotá

You will drive through the heart of the Coffee Triangle takes you from rolling hills and verdant valleys to expansive highlands as you ascend into the Andean foothills. The road winds through agricultural fields, charming villages, and lively markets, offering glimpses of rural Colombian life. The scenery shifts to dramatic mountain vistas with sweeping views of the Magdalena River Valley and the Andes. As you approach Bogotá, the climate cools, and the urban landscape unfolds against the backdrop of surrounding mountains. Your day ends with a farewell to Colombia dinner. Breakfast & dinner included. Total drive time 6.5 hours, 300km

DAY 18 Bogotá to Quito Ecuador

An English-speaking guide will drive you from the car drop off point to El Dorado International Airport for your flight to Ecuador that takes about 1 hour and 30 minutes. An English-speaking guide will drive you from Mariscal Sucre International Airport to your hotel. This private transfer takes about 45 minutes. You will spend 2 nights in Quito. Other Information

This section provides you with important information about travelling in South America prior to booking this adventure. As always, if you have any other questions about joining this tour, please don't hesitate to contact our knowledgeable team.

Mindset...

This is an exploratory adventure. It is the first time we have operated this tour so the mindset required is one of patience and flexibility. You need to understand that travelling some parts of South America does not always go smoothly, no matter how well planned. Things may not happen as quickly as you'd like but it's all part of the adventure and your Self Drive Adventure's escort will do their utmost to smooth out any hiccups during the journey.

Accommodation...

This is not a 5-star holiday. It is an adventure. We are staying in 3-star accommodation and "best available" along the route. The accommodation will be comfortable and with local South American style. Where possible we are staying in family run accommodation to support the local communities within which we are travelling.

Vehicles & Convoy Size...

For Colombia the vehicle is the category SUV Intermediate 4WD AT / SUV Intermediate 4WD AT, example Renault Duster 2.0, Suzuki Vitara 1.6 or similar. In Ecuador the vehicle is the category SUV Intermediate 2WD AT or Manual. For example Suzuki S-Cross 1.6L 2WD AT/Manual or similar.

The minimum number of 4x4s in our convoy is 5 and the maximum is 7. This excludes support vehicles. The convoy does travel together for the vast majority of the journey, so you need to be willing to be flexible to fit in with the determined start time each day, stops for breaks etc. There are some days when you can be on your own too. We try to allow breaks for photos, toilet stops, sightseeing, lunch, morning and afternoon tea but road conditions and travel time for the day may affect how long or how many of these we may have.

Weather...

The temperatures and climate can be quite different depending on the location and altitude during this adventure. Night time temperatures could be as low as 10C and up to 27-33C during the day. Rain could be expected during the tour.

Activity Level...

We do recommend a good level of fitness for any adventure. This trip is not physically demanding as any walking required is usually a short distance. Some of the activities may involve stairs and uneven terrain but these are optional.

Flights...

Before booking flights and other arrangements it is your responsibility to confirm with us that we have the minimum number of cars required for this adventure to depart. The flight from Bogota to Quito is included.

Driving Ability & Conditions...

No off-road driving skills are needed. You drive on the right-hand side of the road (left hand drive). In and around towns the traffic will be busy, but once out of town the roads are not generally busy. We will drive on tar roads, dirt roads, very rough gravel roads. Expect dust and rough conditions to be normal on this adventure. There are some long days when we need to get between destinations.

Food & Drinks...

See the itinerary inclusions for meals that are included. In general, the food is excellent in quality and variety. Breakfast will be included in the accommodation each morning. Lunch will sometimes be in restaurants, hotel or a "picnic lunch" on the road. Dinners will be in hotel and other restaurants in the towns we visit.

Support Team...

On this adventure you will be joined by a Self Drive Adventures English speaking escort as well as a local guide who speaks English and Spanish. The decision of the Self Drive Adventure's escort is final on all matters likely to affect the safety, well-being or best interests of any persons participating in the trip.

Risks & Health...

By participating you acknowledge that the nature of the trip is adventurous, and participation involves a degree of personal risk. Health facilities in South America may not be on par with what would be expected in western countries. We will often be remote and at least a day's drive from the closest town on many occasions. Health risks such as altitude sickness (max altitude 3,500m), Hepatitis A&B, Yellow Fever, Rabies, Typhoid Fever, Dengue Fever, Diphtheria and other health risks affect this region. You should discuss the risks with your doctor before agreeing to join this trip.
